

November 2011
PK12 Zinfandel Wine Club Selection

Total for your Club shipment is $276.00 (Retail $368.00) before tax and shipping

2009 Dry Creek Valley Zinfandel 4 bottles ($18.00 Retail/$13.50 Club)

TECHNICAL DATA:

Harvested:	September 2009
Appellation:	100% Dry Creek Valley
Varietal:	100% Zinfandel
Vineyard:	Pezzi King Estate Vineyard
Barrels:	20% New French, Seguin Moreau, Boswell, Trust
Alcohol:	15.8%
Cases produced:	2500

Delightful aromatics full of juicy berry pie, vanilla bean and sweet oak. Lush flavors of cherries, violets, and candied cranberries layered on top of spicy pepper are harmonized with velvet tannins that dance on as the finish keeps you enchanted.

2009 Old Vines Zinfandel 4 bottles ($24.00 Retail/$18.00 Club)

TECHNICAL DATA:

Harvested:	September 2009
Appellation:	100% Dry Creek Valley
Varietal:	100% Zinfandel
Vineyard:	Pezzi King Estate, Serracino Vineyards
Barrels:	30% New French, Allegro, Seguin Moreau, Rousseau
Alcohol:	14.9%
Cases produced:	1800

These Zinfandel grapes are true to the definition of Old Vines, since some of the vines on the Pezzi King property were planted in the early 1900's. The wine unfolds layers of dark chocolate, fresh cracked pepper, raspberry and brown sugar. The mouth is lush, with a rich entry of mixed berries, black currant and wild cherries, coupled with well-knit tannins which provide the perfect balance for the fruit forward Dry Creek hillside distinctive terroir.

2007 Reserve Zinfandel, Row 22 2 bottles ($50.00 Retail/ $37.50 Club))

TECHNICAL DATA:

Harvested:	September 2007
Appellation:	Dry Creek Valley
Varietal:	100% Zinfandel
Vineyards:	Pezzi King Estate Vineyard, Block 22
Barrels:	30% New French, Mercurey, Rousseau
Alcohol:	16.10%
Cases produced:	145

Full of character is this hillside Dry Creek Valley Zinfandel. This wine fills the nose with brambly aromas of dewberries, chocolate, and sweetbrier. Broad on the palate, laced with red berries, spice and cocoa finishing with high notes of vanilla bean and maple.

2007 Reserve Zinfandel, Row 14 1 bottle ($50.00 Retail/$37.50 Club)

TECHNICAL DATA:

Harvested: September 2007
Appellation: Dry Creek Valley
Varietal: 100% Zinfandel
Vineyard: Pezzi King Estate Vineyard, Block 14
Barrels: 30% New French, Rousseau, Seguin Moreau
Alcohol: 16.10%
Cases produced: 141

Elegant and exotic as Pezzi King Estate vineyards have expressed this crafted Zinfandel. Powerfully built with layers of ripe dark berry aromas with spice and vanilla. Supple tannins lift the fruit with a long lasting finish full of berries and shavings of chocolate.

2008 Serracino Zinfandel 2 bottles ($50.00 Retail/$37.50 Club)

TECHNICAL DATA:

Harvested: September 2008
Appellation: Dry Creek Valley
Varietal: 100% Zinfandel
Vineyards: Serracino Vineyards
Barrels: 40% New French, Seguin Moreau, Damy
Alcohol: 16.3%
Cases produced: 168

Seductive and persuasive as this wine unlocks aromas of cherries and strawberries with cedar and brown sugar. All of the sensations cascade on the pallet from cheek to cheek as the flavors are balanced with lively acidity. Time will elapse with the seamless finish reminding you of great Dry Creek Valley Zinfandel.

2007 Reserve Zinfandel, Row 22 2 bottles ($50.00 Retail/ $37.50 Club))

TECHNICAL DATA:

Harvested: September 2007
Appellation: Dry Creek Valley
Varietal: 100% Zinfandel
Vineyards: Pezzi King Estate Vineyard, Block 22
Barrels: 30% New French, Mercurey, Rousseau
Alcohol: 16.10%
Cases produced: 145

Full of character is this hillside Dry Creek Valley Zinfandel. This wine fills the nose with brambly aromas of dewberries, chocolate, and sweetbrier. Broad on the palate, laced with red berries, spice and cocoa finishing with high notes of vanilla bean and maple.