

November 2011 PK3 Zins Wine Club Selection

Total for your Club shipment is $73.60 (Retail $92.00) before tax and shipping

2007 Reserve Zinfandel, Row 14 1 bottle ($50.00 Retail/$40.00 Club)

TECHNICAL DATA:

Harvested:	September 2007
Appellation:	Dry Creek Valley
Varietal:	100% Zinfandel
Vineyard:	Pezzi King Estate Vineyard, Block 14
Barrels:	30% New French, Rousseau, Seguin Moreau
Alcohol:	16.10%
Cases produced:	141

Elegant and exotic as Pezzi King Estate vineyards have expressed this crafted Zinfandel. Powerfully built with layers of ripe dark berry aromas with spice and vanilla. Supple tannins lift the fruit with a long lasting finish full of berries and shavings of chocolate.

Riley's Red Zinfandel 1 bottle ($18.00 Retail/$14.40 Club)

TECHNICAL DATA:

Appellation:	100% Dry Creek Valley
Varietal:	90% Zinfandel, 10% Merlot
Vineyard:	Pezzi King Estate
Barrels:	100% new oak
Alcohol:	15.90%
Cases produced:	300

Balanced flavors of black cherry, rich raspberry and current. Medium to full bodied, with a long finish and integrated tannins. Great barbeque or picnic wine.

2009 Old Vines Zinfandel 1 bottle ($24.00 Retail/$19.20 Club)

TECHNICAL DATA:

Harvested:	September 2009
Appellation:	100% Dry Creek Valley
Varietal:	100% Zinfandel
Vineyard:	Pezzi King Estate, Serracino Vineyards
Barrels:	30% New French, Allegro, Seguin Moreau, Rousseau
Alcohol:	15.9%
Cases produced:	1800

These Zinfandel grapes are true to the definition of Old Vines, since some of the vines on the Pezzi King property were planted in the early 1900's. The wine unfolds layers of dark chocolate, fresh cracked pepper, raspberry and brown sugar. The mouth is lush, with a rich entry of mixed berries, black currant and wild cherries, coupled with well-knit tannins which provide the perfect balance for the fruit forward Dry Creek hillside distinctive terroir.